

Serena Williams—

Since entering her first tennis tournament at age four and a half, Serena has made her name known in the world of tennis. After making her first professional debut in 1995, Serena rose to the top – winning the 1999 U.S. Open and Ladies' Doubles with sister, Venus. Serena partnered with her sister Venus to win the Gold Medal at the 2000 Olympic Games.

Serena most recently won the 2002 French Open and the 2002 Wimbledon title. She became the #1 ranked tennis player in the world on July 8, 2002. Serena currently resides in Palm Beach Gardens, Florida.

Most recently, Serena and her sister Venus have joined the McDonald's family with an unprecedented three-year advertising and public service agreement beginning with the introduction of McDonald's National Dollar Menu which debuted on November 1st. In addition, to starring roles in McDonald's TV advertising, the Williams Sisters three-year agreement includes public appearances for many of McDonald's philanthropic efforts including those for Ronald McDonald House Charities.
