

Giorgia Surina MTV VJ

Ever since Giorgia Surina was a child, she has been passionate about drawing, painting and music.

Surina finished secondary school at Perito Aziendale Corrispondente in Lingue Estere, and holds a degree in Communication Science. Surina participated in Miss University, helping her enter into the fashion world. After fashion shows and photo reportages, she had the opportunity to be a main character in advertising spots. Her first TV performance was for J TV "Casa J."

Her career began with HIT LIST ITALIA, and she came to London to present SELECT. In November 1999 she began her great adventure with "TRL" (Total Request Live), the popular live MTV show in Milan.

Since she started at MTV she has participated in all MTV DAY Editions, the concert MTV organizes each year to celebrate its birthday, and participated in two editions of Futurshow open concerts with Marco Maccarini in Bologna. In 2000 and 2001 she participated in "DISCO 2000," a program that tells a music story through its main characters. In spring 2005 Surina participated in MTV's "Absolutely Star," which spoke about great music stars.

Surina has also been a part of a film (Una Talpa al Bioparco), a TV show on Italia Uno ("Zelig Off"), a program in Las Vegas for MTV ("Viva Las Vegas") and a summer tour with Zelig. Currently, Surina is a VJ on MTV's "TRL" with Alessandro Cattelan.
