

LINDA DUNHAM – CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD FOR RMHC

Taking over as Chairman of the Board for RMHC, Dunham, from Watchung, N.J., is particularly committed to helping children from underserved communities. In her 14-year tenure on the RMHC Board of Trustees, she has helped guide tremendous program growth while expanding the Charity's ability to help children around the world. She also serves as Vice Chairman of the Board for RMHC of the New York Tri-State Area and has served on the Board of Ronald McDonald House® of New York. In these roles, she has been a champion of providing access to education and career opportunities for graduating high school students from disadvantaged households.

She was instrumental in expanding the local RMHC Chapter's grant making ability to better serve the needs of children in the New York metropolitan area. Dunham and her husband, Lee, own six McDonald's restaurants in New York and New Jersey.
